

TForce Freight Rating Software License Agreement

The TForce Freight Rating Software is made available solely for the use of TForce Freight's customers and/or their agents. Use of the TForce Freight Rating Software is restricted to rating and auditing of shipments transported by TForce Freight. Recipients may copy this product only for use on their computer system. Extra copies for other business locations are allowed. All other copying, duplicating, selling or distributing of the TForce Freight Rating Software violates the law and is prohibited.

By accessing the TForce Freight Rating Software through this media, parties acknowledge and agree that the TForce Freight Rating Software is the sole copyright property of TForce Freight and agree to utilize the software only as provided above.

TForce Freight reserves all program rights. Rates and charges provided by the TForce Freight Rating Software are based on current tariff provisions and information supplied by the user. If, due to program or user error, discrepancies occur between the TForce Freight Rating Software rates and published rates, TForce Freight will apply the published rates.

TForce Freight reserves the right to terminate this license, and the license will automatically terminate if recipient fails to comply with any term or condition of this agreement.

By downloading this software you agree to abide by the terms of the above agreement